CLEVELAND PREFERS INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

Bridge Builder Than President.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.-Grover Cleveland was received with lusty cheers by the students of Armour Institute vester-

One statement he made was especial ly a happy one, considering his audience, which is engaged in acquiring what he terms an industrial education

The opportunities today are greater than ever for boys to get a practical education-an industrial education-and I would rather my own boy grew up highest honor that the people could be-stow upon him. I hate to hear persons talking in a pessimistic strain to the effect that the day of opportunity in this country has gone by and that the chances for a young man to rise by his own efforts have passed away. It is not true. There is room at the top, and there always will be.

Bauder did not reply or open the door, whereupon the man whistled and another man came up. As the man started to force the door Mrs. Bauder got a revolver, which she fired several times.

PRINCIPAL'S ARREST GIVES PUPILS HOLIDAY

WHITE PLAINS N. Y., Oct. 16 .-There was a holiday for the twenty-eight school children in School District 5, in Harrison, yesterday, because the principal, Isaac Conklin, of Chappaqua, had been arrested and was to be put on trial on charges of beating David P. Burnes, one of the pupils, with a thick butternut stick and a derrick rope. Justice of the Peace Crowe, the Harrison station agent, granted a warrant for Conklin's arrest, and the examination was set down for Wednesday night in the Holland Hotel, at Silver Lake Park.

TO DECIDE A CASE

LAWRENCEVILLE, III., Oct. 16 .- In the Lawrenceville circuit court here a jury trying the case of the State against George Ryan, charged with assault to commit murder, could not reach a verdict after being out thirty-six hours, when one of them suggested flipping nickels—heads to convict, tails to acquit. Each juror put a nickel in a hat, a shake and toss, and the nickels fell on a table, six and six, necessitating another toss. The second trial showed four heads and eight tails, resulting in acquittal. The court accepted the verdict, but did not know how it was reached until yesterday.
